General Information and Tennis Etiquette:

- No banners or signs of any kind are allowed at Brighton High or Liberty Park.
- Requests for players to play on a particular court are not accepted.
- Do not sit in front of the gates to the courts. Coaches, players and umpires need quick access to the courts.
- Fans and spectators should remain quiet during play.
- After the point is over, cheer/applaud for good shots and long rallies but NOT for unforced errors.
- Only coaches with appropriate UHSAA credentials are allowed to coach players. Parents, fans, and spectators are prohibited from coaching or communicating with players during a match.
- Abusive behavior directed towards players or officials will not be tolerated.
- Be courteous and respectful of all players.
- Tournament staff reserve the right to require any individual to leave the premises if they don't comply with tournament rules or policies.

Brighton High School Information:

- There is no entry fee for State Tournament Play in round at Brighton High School
