If you are not able to attend the meeting when the test is being offered, you will need to make arrangements to take it at the UHSAA office during that timeframe. NO EXCEPTIONS.

There are sometimes reasons why an official should not work at a particular school (recent graduate, family attending, employment, etc.). Please notify your arbiter if there is any school at which you feel you should not officiate.

The UHSAA Executive Committee has ruled that a $50.00 fine will be assessed to any official who accepts an assignment and then does not show. The official will then be suspended until the fine is paid.
